SAVE THE DATE--2020 Service Awards Ceremony

Please mark your calendars for the annual Fort Hays State University Service Awards Ceremony, a Facebook LIVE EVENT, on Friday, December 4, at 3:30 p.m. You can watch this event at the FHSU Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/forthaysstate/>. You do not need to have a Facebook account.

We will honor faculty and staff who have served the university and the State of Kansas for 10, 20, 30, 40 and 50 years. The Alumni Association will present the 25-year awards. I hope you will join us virtually as we recognize these dedicated employees.

In lieu of the traditional holiday gathering, please be sure to pick up a special treat (while supplies last), available from 3-4:30 on December 4, located on the first floor of your campus building.

MDC Spring SHRM Online Course

Online Course: SHRM Certification Online Prep Course

Course Dates: Feb. 8 – May 2, 2021

Price: $1200 (discounts available for FHSU Alumn, early registrations and students)

Instructor: Mr. Tom Zerfas

Do you know a student, acquaintance or co-worker who could benefit from a professional HR certification? If so, feel free to share this course with them!

The SHRM-CP & SCP certifications will allow you to be recognized as a qualified and valuable HR professional. The MDC's SHRM Certification Prep Course is designed to set up individuals in the HR field for future success by greatly increasing their chances of passing the SHRM-CP and SHRM-SCP exam to obtain these certifications. Participants will benefit from expert instruction, the SHRM Learning System—the official certification prep tool, and supplemental materials on FHSU's Learning Management System, Blackboard. The course concludes right before the next SHRM certification exam testing window, so you don't have to worry about forgetting what you just learned.

This course is structured as an asynchronous, independent study. Expert instruction and support will be available to all participants throughout the course by SHRM-certified instructor Mr. Tom Zerfas. Students are eligible to receive 3 credit hours for this course, making it a great addition to their spring course schedule.

Register by January 29. Early registration ends January 18.

For more information on this course, visit the MDC's website or email us!

Employment Opportunity – Marketing Editor – University Relations and Marketing

University Relations and Marketing is accepting applications for a Marketing Editor.

The marketing editor reports to the chief communications officer and is responsible for developing strategic communications and marketing content that elevates Hays State University's institutional profile. Efforts include researching and writing articles in support of university content marketing efforts, magazine and marketing copywriting and editing, writing press releases, news distribution, earned media strategy development. The marketing editor also serves as the senior editor of ROAR Magazine. This position may also include the supervision of one or more strategic communications specialists. ## The Office Of Global Partnerships Is Accepting Applications For A Program Specialist

This position supports the Assistant Vice President for Global Partnerships with academic partnerships between FHSU and international higher education institutions, domestic corporate entities and other related organizations. The position includes a wide range of administrative duties including building partnership relationships; developing creative campaigns including marketing fliers; statistical reports and spreadsheets; handling information requests; planning special events and meetings; arranging electronic communications and social media; back up support for international travel arrangements; and serves as an essential communicator for positive working relationships between the Office of Global Partnerships and its partners around the world. This position will interact with people of other cultures, maintaining the globally-recognized reputation of the University and the city of Hays. This position supports the large and important initiative in mainland China with nearly 50 faculty teaching at its partners' schools and also supports the expansion of other initiatives around the world. A successful candidate must be able to communicate professionally; possess excellent problem-solving and time management skills; be detail orientated; and have the ability to determine priorities and meet deadlines.

Deadline for applying is December 9, 2020. For a full description and to apply, please visit <https://fhsu.wd1.myworkdayjobs.com/CAREERS>

Designate Fall 2021 Z-Courses By The End Of The Semester

The OER Committee is working to identify courses that use zero-cost course materials (Z-Courses) for the Fall 2021 Workday registration system implementation. The deadline for submitting Z-Courses for Fall 2021 has been extended to the end of this semester. Departments have the option to receive a $6 cost-share per student taking a registered Z-course. To learn more about the Z-Course Designation, visit the FHSU OER website. To register your Z-course:

1. Have the department chair sign the PDF Chair Approval Form for Z-Course Certification. This form gives the department the option to waive the z-course cost share if desired.

2. Fill out the Google Z-Course Certification Form. It includes a field for uploading the chair form.

If you don't currently teach a Z-course but want to convert your large-enrollment course to use zero-cost course materials, consider applying for a Z-course grant (ranging from $500-$5,000 with a rolling deadline). Contact Claire Nickerson at cenickerson@fhsu.edu with any questions.

FHSU Student Evaluation of Academic Advising - Live November 9 in Blue

On Monday, November 9, 2020 the FHSU Student Evaluation of Academic Advising went live for students in Blue. The move to Blue will:

1. allow for less confusion for students between this evaluation and course evaluations,
2. allowed for an adjustment of the scale to align with the course evaluation, and
3. easier access to results for academic advisors, chairs, and deans.

An email with more detail can be found in your inbox. Questions should be directed to advising@fhsu.edu.

Campus Climate and Victimization Survey

"Dear students,

This is to remind you that the Department of Criminal Justice developed a Campus Climate and Victimization Survey in conjunction with the Office of Student Affairs. You are invited to provide information to FHSU about your experiences since you first enrolled. This anonymous survey will measure campus climate and your perception of safety. The survey also asks about student victimization, access to campus resources, and satisfaction with university and police responses. The survey will take between 30 to 45 minutes. To participate, you must be 18 years or older. The survey will be available until December 15th, 2020.

To complete the survey, please click the following link:

Multicultural and Interdisciplinary Research Team Seeking Student Research Assistants

Are you interested in exploring issues related to leadership development, adversity, resilience, self-efficacy, personality traits, as well as women's issues, gender, and ethnic studies? If so, this may be something to involve yourself with.

The research assistant opportunity is open to undergraduate and graduate students (both on campus and virtual) interested in exploring the makings of BIPOC women leaders by examining factors such as the influences of lived experiences on the leadership development of women that identify as Black, Indigenous, and/or a Persons of Color [BIPOC]. Furthermore, this position is open to FHSU students of any gender identity. This is an excellent opportunity to develop communication skills, enhance professionalism, and expand research abilities.

- The position begins January 19, 2021 and ends May 7, 2021; however, there may be the opportunity to renew for the 2022 AY. Approx. 5 hours per week, on average; however, that could fluctuate week to week based on workload.
- $500 scholarship available (mid to late Spring 2021).

Interested students should submit a resume and/or vita and interest statement (2 to 3 paragraphs) to Dr. Nuchelle Chance nlchance@fhsu.edu by December 14, 2020. Be sure to include your degree of study and your current GPA as well your level of knowledge of quantitative and qualitative research.

Applicants will further conduct a brief interview via zoom with the research team and selected candidates will be notified by late December/early January via email.
